20	Reliance Commercial Finance Limited	7000 500	Non-payment of interest	Interest due on September 20, 2019 was defaulted since then no interest paid by the company. Various actions have been taken since the date of default last year. However, in the recent times, Vistra had arranged various con-call/meetings with the debenture holders between July and November 2020. Upon the instructions of the multiple Debenture Holders, Mr. Devendra Goel, Managing Director of Lumino Industries was chosen to be appointed as the Nominee Director on the board of RCFL. Profile of the proposed Nominee Director was sent to RCFL on August 6, 2020. RCFL is yet to finalise the status of appointment of Nominee Director. In line with the SEBI amendments dated 13th October 2020, which permits Debenture Trustees to sign the Inter-creditor Agreement ("ICA") on behalf of the Debenture Holders, provided necessary requirements are fulfilled, Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu India LLP, the resolution process advisor ("Deloitte"), requested Vistra in capacity as a Debenture Trustee to sign the ICA on behalf of Debenture Holders. While we shared the request received from Deloitte to all the Debenture Holders for their views, we also sought clarifications and requested Deloitte to clarify on the advantages offered to the Debenture Holders upon signing of the ICA, and clarify how they intend to ensure that the ICA signing is in the best interest of the Debenture Holders, besides participating in the resolution process. Vide our emails dated 31st October 2020, 8th November 2020 and 10th November 2020, we raised queries to Bank of Baroda (the Lead Bank), Deloitte and RCFL on the process around ICA signing. Also, Lead Bank and Deloitte, invited Vistra to attend a meeting of the consortium of Lenders ("Meeting"), with a limited representation of Debenture Holders, in order to have a meaningful discussions. The said Meeting of the ICA Lenders was held on 6th November 2020 via audio/video conference-call. Since Vistra did not have the authority to vote on any of the items, the meeting was attended by Vistra on behalf of the debenture holders, as observers without any voting rights, along with limited representation of four debenture holders (2 individual DHs and 2 institutional DHs) basis the nominations received from the Debenture Holders. Lead Bank updated on the actions taken in the matter by the Lenders / advisors and discussion was held on the resolution process under the RBI circular. Vistra and the Debenture Holders attending the Meeting, were informed by Lead Bank that due to the price sensitivity of certain information, certain information could not be shared unless a Non-Disclosure Undertaking ("NDU") is signed. Thereafter, the Lead Bank, in their response dated 17th November 2020, gave clarification on queries and shared the draft of the NDU. Vistra has circulated and sought confirmation from the Debenture Holders who attended the Meeting if they wish to sign the NDU. However, we are still awaiting any response from the Debenture Holders both on signing of ICA and the NDU.	Various	CARE
